About ICMA:

Founded in 2011, the InterContinental Music Awards (ICMA) recognize and celebrate artists from every continent, breaking down cultural barriers through music. With a focus on accessibility, diversity, and artist development, ICMA's global initiative has been honored by the City of Los Angeles, the California State Assembly, and the California State Senate for its cultural impact and commitment to uplifting independent talent.

In 2025, ICMA also received a Telly Award for Craft Use of Livestreaming, recognizing the organization's excellence in connecting global audiences through digital platforms.

The annual online awards ceremony brings musicians together from around the world, creating a space where music becomes the universal language of unity and hope.
